- b. Mr. Seelig stated based on the advice from Town Counsel, the town wants no appearance of some other outcome because of accepting a check from Mr. Marble.
- c. Alan Dias, Clerk, Board of Health updated those present on what was discussed at previous Board of Health meeting and also updated them on information someone gave him regarding vandalism done at a property owned by the Marbles.
- d. Mr. Dias commented that the Board of Health made what they considered a business decision when they agreed that it might be ok to accept the reimbursement to the town. However, he has no problem turning the decision over to the Board of Selectmen and letting them decide, but as a taxpayer he would like to accept the check.
